1. Scope

This Parental Data Protection Notice applies when a participant is a child or minor and parental or legal guardian consent is required or provided.

2. What Data We May Collect

- Child/minor identification and contact data (e.g., name or stage name, country).
- Submitted application information and artistic content (video/audio/images/text).
- Parent/guardian contact information (name, email) for consent and communication.
- Consent records and verification information where necessary.
- Technical data (e.g., IP address, logs) for security and integrity.

3. Why We Process This Data

- To evaluate and manage participation of the child/minor in the platform or events.
- To communicate with the parent/guardian regarding participation and safeguarding.
- To publish performances only where valid consent and appropriate safeguards exist.
- To protect children's privacy, prevent misuse and ensure platform security.
- To comply with legal obligations applicable to children's data.

4. Legal Basis

Processing is generally based on parental/legal guardian consent (GDPR Art. 6(1)(a)) and, where applicable, performance of a contract (Art. 6(1)(b)), legal obligations (Art. 6(1)(c)) and legitimate interests (Art. 6(1)(f)) such as security and abuse prevention.

5. Safeguards

- We minimise the data we collect and limit access to authorised personnel only.

- We apply technical and organisational security measures to protect children's data.
- We publish content only under a valid legal basis and with appropriate controls.
- We keep consent records to demonstrate compliance and allow withdrawals where applicable.

6. Data Retention

We retain children's data only as long as necessary for participation, compliance, and safeguarding. Retention may be shortened where consent is withdrawn and no other legal basis applies.

7. Parental/Guardian Rights

Parents/guardians may request access, rectification, erasure, restriction, portability, object to certain processing, and withdraw consent (where applicable). Requests: info@globaltalentsarena.com.

8. Contact

If you have any questions about children's privacy or safeguarding, please contact info@globaltalentsarena.com.
